Julie says:

Hi all

Here is this months list thanks to all the regular Slubbers gang last night for compiling another few weeks of splashing through the mud & puddles. We love it really and it can only get better, we can all remember the days of cycling in shorts and t shirts trying to decide whether we need suncream or not!

Please also see the note from Sarah anyone interested contact her asap.

Cheers Jules

Sarah Says:

WANTED: I am looking for a partner to do the 12 hour ride as a pair at the Twenty-four12 mtb marathon. It will be on 22/23 July (NB: the weekend before the Merida ride at Selkirk) and will be at Lodge-wood Park in Shropshire. You will need some off-road lights. No running at the start of this race! For more details check out www.twentyfour12.com.

Pat says:

You can use any phone to view a brief version the club Meets List. This might be useful if, for instance, you arrive at the start and there is no-one there! The URL (web address) is:

www.pcorker.plus.com/wyrr.wml (Last letter is a small case "L")

You can enter and bookmark that URL on your phone.

The usual URL of: www.pcorker.plus.com/page70.htm may also work and perhaps be more suitable if you have a Smart Phone or PDA.

More on Mobiles and the Internet...

The built-in browsers in basic phones are usually designed to access WAP pages which are made specially small to fit the screen. They can also usually download full HTML (ordinary) web pages from the Internet but usually these will be distorted or may lock-up. Opera Mini is a new (free) browser for your phone which converts over-wide web pages to a narrow vertical strip which you can scroll down. You can see it demonstrated live HERE on your computer, at no cost. (Note that you need to click on the phone buttons to operate the demo but you can type using the computer keyboard.) Highlight (up/down buttons) a box or a link then action it (centre button). Try entering bbc.com or the above links etc (Note that side arrows scroll down and up)

Download Opera Mini HERE (free!) either to your computer for transfer to your phone or direct to your phone. It usually goes to the Java or Games area on your phone. It can be quite useful for getting, say, an address or phone number off a website when you are away from your computer. Note that you don't NEED Opera Mini to access www.pcorker.plus.com/wyrr.wml it just improves (a lot!) what you already have. (On the demo, you will need intelligence to accept the licence! There is a FORUM ....)

Buying Batteries

I needed several different button cells recently for bike computers and watches. I was used to paying £2 or 3 for these but found this online purchasing site selling them for 50/99p with postage only a pound (free if order over £10). They were branded, fresh and arrived promptly:
