Hi all

Thanks to Julian for the good ride at Grange Moor yesterday-good job it was a lovely sunny day!!

Here's the list for the rest of the month and things can only get better- I'm not coming.

Julie

P.S. Until I get a shiny new helmet.

Wednesday night rides are a 7.00 start

Saturday Start Time changed again now 10.30

Don't forget:

You can use any phone to view a brief version the club Meets List. This might be useful if, for instance, you arrive at the start and there is no-one there! The URL (web address) is:

www.pcorker.plus.com/wyrr.wml (Last letter is a small case "L")

You can enter and bookmark that URL on your phone.

The usual URL of: www.pcorker.plus.com/page70.htm may also work and perhaps be more suitable if you have a Smart Phone or PDA.

These folk sent me their newsletter which looked pretty exciting! Well, there are some pretty pictures, anyway!

John Berry dropped us a line:

Hi Pat,

Bet you though I had died. But no, living in Bowness on Windermere. Cumbria. Not cycling at present but hoping to get back into it. Just found your website, thought I would drop you a line, please give my regards to any old members that might remember me. Might see you all next time you visit the lakes.

Regards

John Berry

Look at the results and see how our folk got on. Tony retired due to coldness (Marshalling...)

... And more claims to be in the land of the living...

Hi Pat

Just been looking at your web site and seen a letter from John Berry. Well I'm not dead either. I'm still in Drig and still out on the same Mount Vision most sundays although its only Sunday mornings now due to family and work commitments.

I'm not quite so mad on the downhills now, I think my bottle's going as I get older. Still as crap as I ever was at the up hills though!

I keep expecting to come accross the club every time I'm doing hebden bridge and now doubt I will one day.

Regards to every one
